

There should be no change to the current Indiana Telephone Privacy law. Our calls have been reduced by approximately 90% and any change to this would be unsatisfactory.